

Frequently Asked Bridal Questions:

- What is your design philosophy?
- ANSWER: Our philosophy is to work with each bride to provide wedding florals that suits her personality. Each bride is special and has her own desires, style and wishes. We have designed florals for very small weddings to lavish events. Regardless of the size of the wedding each brides receives our personal care and attention
- Can I see examples of past work?
- ANSWER: We have a large section in our studio dedicated to all your bridal needs. Photos of our design work are on display in our bridal consultation room to help you with your floral selection. When you visit our studio you will meet our design team and see them in action.
- Do you offer any other services I might need?
- ANSWER: Yes, we can provide all your stationery needs from save the date, invitations, programs, menu cards, place cards to thank notes.
- How many other weddings and events will you do the same weekend as my event?
- ANSWER: We never book more weddings than we can handle, if we book a very large wedding than it is one per weekend. On weekends when we have smaller weddings, multiple weddings will be booked. Our weddings are set up by designers and design assistants; so that last minute adjustments can be made on site to insure the perfect wedding set up. You will be working with the same consultant who will see the process through from beginning to end.
- What flowers will be in season and less expensive for my wedding? How can I maximize my budget?
- ANSWER: Most varieties are available throughout the year, although there are some flowers available only in the spring. Deciding on the colors you want to use in the wedding is the first step. With that decision made, we can then make suggestions as to what flowers are available in your season and what color combinations will work within your budget.

- Is it possible to see a sample of my centerpiece and/or bouquet?
- ANSWER: We frequently design prototypes, portrait bouquets reflecting the bride's bouquet and sample centerpieces. We would need two weeks notice to secure the necessary flowers.
- Will you deliver and/or set up my flowers? How long do you generally spend at a site setting up? Is there an extra delivery or set up charge?
- ANSWER: The consultant you work with will be involved with the set up. The amount of time required for a set up directly relates to the floral plan developed. All set ups are completed an hour prior to the event. There is a service fee, which covers the delivery, set up and pick up and the number of vans required. The fee varies depending upon the floral plan.
- Is it possible to reuse the ceremony flowers as reception decorations? Will you transport them, or will we need to? Is there a transport fee?
- ANSWER: Yes, often times our brides do reuse their ceremony arrangements at the reception. This does depend upon the time and type of reception. The specifics can be discussed during our consultation. We will transport them and the fee is included in the service fee.
- Do you have rental supplies (such as vases, urns, candelabras and potted plants) or do I need to use a separate rental company?
- ANSWER: We have many rental items. Among our rental items are large urns, matching columns, chuppahs, arbors, buffet and centerpiece containers in glass, silver and other faux finishes. We also provide a limited service of plant rentals such as large ferns.
- If I need to add, subtract, or change arrangements or bridal bouquets, how long do I have to do so?
- ANSWER: We finalize the details a month prior to the wedding up until that time you may make as many changes as you wish.
- How soon do I need to schedule an appointment or put down a deposit to reserve your services? What is the minimum deposit?
- ANSWER: It is never too soon to get started planning your wedding. We can certainly help you with that. Our one-hour complimentary consultation will help you think through many of the details of the day. Certain dates and times of the year book quickly so it is a good idea to schedule a consultation and get the process started as soon as you are ready. We secure the date with a $250.00 deposit that is nonrefundable but is applied to the balance at the end.
